

Engineer in Electromechanics (Brussels)

Veolia Belux

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support of a team leader in the management of a portfolio of hospital or tertiary sector's contracts of around € 1 million
- Interactions with clients: preparation and participation in work meetings and analysis of contracts with implementation of contractual requirements
- Help with fault diagnosis & improvement suggestions
- Implementation of work processes & methods
- Costing and carrying out works
- Assistance in the management of a team of 6-7 technicians (management of activities, absences, etc.)
- Analysis of energy consumption and proposal of possible savings with and without investment
- Request for offer to purchase parts & services, analysis and order.

YOUR PROFILE

- Recently graduated Engineer in electromechanics
- Autonomous, knowing how to take initiatives, listen to clients and the team, dynamic and responsive
- Attracted by the technique and by the work in the field
- Entrepreneur spirit
- French and/or Dutch speaking. English language is a plus.

Interested?

Send your application to jobs.be@veolia.com